THE - TRADE - PALACE

SETS THE PACE.

New Goods, Best Values, Correct Styles.

Our Dress Goods are entirely new, and values too numerous to mention. Black Dress Goods at lowest prices ever offered. BRAIDS are the thing for good style. Table Linen and Napkins at prices never offered before. Outings in all the late patterns.

A WORD HERE—A beautiful and useful premium free to every customer. Ask to see them.

Millinery! Millinery! Millinery!

Our opening was a grand success and prices to suit all. Owl heads and all New Fads on sale. Pattern Hats, the best styles ever shown in Columbia.

BLANKETS at wonderfully low prices. Tariff will not count with us in any line, as our purchases were made before it took effect.

CORSETS! CORSETS! CORSETS!

Our Corsets do not require a fitter, as they are made to give the form a good shape and our purchasers can fit themselves. LADIES' UNDERWEAR—Vests from 15c up.

SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

All new toes; warranted to fit. No old stock. BIG DRIVE IN HANDKERCHIEFS.

Boys' Knee Pants, 15c, 25c, 50c. Boys' Suits, 4 to 15 years, $1.10 to $1.75.

CAPES AND JACKETS TO SUIT ALL.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

cess in life will profit by attending these discourses.

The superintendent, Mr. Erwin, appointed Prof. Harris and Scott and Miss Beulah McCain as delegates to the Sunday-school Convention, which will convene at Spring Hill next Saturday.

The Teachers' County Association will meet at McCain's Academy, Saturday, Oct. 9. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Tom Street, wife and sister are visiting in this community at present. Mrs. Street was formerly Miss Allison, of this place, but now of Savannah. We gladly welcome them in our midst.

Mr. Maury Wilburn, of New Orleans, is now back at home, to the delight of homefolks and friends.

We are glad to have Miss Laura Smith, of Broadview, in school at this place. She is the HERALD's gifted "Brunette."

Our pen essays to write a word of kind remembrance for our former schoolmate, Miss Hattie Perry, whose body was laid to rest at this place last Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 11 o'clock. Of late years we saw little of her, she having been confined to a bed of affliction. We only remember her as a sweet, unassuming school-girl, little dreaming then of the years of affliction awaiting her. She was always a true Christian girl, and we feel sure she is now sweetly resting from days and nights of weary suffering, singing songs with the redeemed.

Mr. W. J. Yancy and wife visited relatives at Holt's Corner since our last.

Mr. James Woody, of Santa Fe, spent several days with his son, R. A. Woody, since our last.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Taylor, of Mowd, spent part of last week in our midst.

Rev. M. E. Gabard is conducting a meeting at Sunnyside this week.

OMEGA.

"As if a brick were lying in my stomach" is the description by a dyspeptic of his feeling after eating. This is one of the commonest symptoms of indigestion. If you have it, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. Not only this symptom, but all the symptoms of indigestion are cured by Shaker Digestive Cordial. So many medicines to cure this one disorder. Only one that can be called successful, because only one that acts in a simple, natural, and yet scientific way. Shaker Digestive Cordial. Purely vegetable, and containing no dangerous ingredients. Shaker Digestive Cordial tones up, strengthens and restores to health all the digestive organs. Sold by druggists; price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.

ENON CREEK.

ENON CREEK, Oct. 4.—It is with the most profound regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Beulah Harmon Grigsby, wife of Mr. E. B. Grigsby, of Spring Hill, who died Sept. 24, in the 34th year of her age. Deceased had been a great sufferer for the past two years with that dreadful disease, consumption, but bore her sufferings without a murmur. During her sickness she often spoke of death, saying she was not afraid to die and was willing and ready to go at the Master's call; but all she regretted was leaving her four little children. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. A. Hardin, in the Presbyterian church at Spring Hill, and her remains were laid to rest by hands of reverent love, in the Spring Hill graveyard. She was a member of the Port

Perry were very much grieved to hear of her death. May God comfort and bless those who mourn for her.

We also extend our deep sympathy to Mrs. M. M. Harris, in the loss of her father, Mr. Conright, which occurred Sept. 25.

We are sorry to report Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore having child.

Leslie Renfro is also quite sick. Hope he will soon recover.

Owing to the number of visitors in Williamsport recently, we will only give their names and not the names of those they visited: Misses Cora Means and Annie Prow, of Knoxville; Fannie Maie Stephenson, of Frierson; Emma Harlan, of Columbia; Jennie and Lettie Bingham, of Isom's; Daisie Pigg, Mattie and Lizzie Dodson, of Water Valley; Messrs. Samuel Billie and Morris Stephenson, Frank Fulton and Jones Bunch, of Zion; Spencer Kittrell, Adley Lum, Tom Castleman, Royce Grimes, of Isom's; Robert Rice, Dover; Rufus Long, of Mt. Pleasant; Sam Gaskill and Berry Owens, Santa Fe; Steve Kirk and Ernest Kittrell, Hampshire; Horace Cecil, Lipscomb; John Kinzer, of Nashville; Andrew Good, and Ross, John Anderson, and Ernest Timmons.

Mrs. Robert Moore, Jr., has sold his farm on Snow Creek to Mr. A. E. Moore and Mrs. Lizzie Baker, and has purchased the Stockard homestead in Williamsport.

Sorghum making, gathering corn and preparing for wheat sowing are the order of the day with farmers. Wheat sowing is progressing slowly on account of the extreme dry weather.

On last Friday night, at about 11 o'clock, Mr. Richard Cummins was found in a cabin in Mr. J. W. Foster's lot in an unconscious state, and badly, although not seriously, cut on the forehead and bruised. He had expected to leave for Nashville to enter school, and had been calling in the neighborhood. Sunday morning the unfortunate young man was still unable to inform his friends of anything in regard to the condition in which he was found; so the writer cannot give full particulars.

Our merchants are daily receiving their new fall and winter goods.

CULLEOKA.

CULLEOKA, Oct. 5.—We have not been able to send the HERALD any news for the last two weeks on account of being confined with fever.

T. M. Stephens, of Elora, spent last week with his son W. K. Stephens. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tomblinson are on the sick list.

M. F. Ballantyne left for Hot Springs, Ark., last week. He expects to be gone about a month.

The City Telephone is being extended to Culleoka, and will soon be in active competition with the Bell here. Jodie Love will leave soon for Aberdeen, Miss., to accept a position.

The new postmaster took charge of the office Oct. 1. In spite of the Republican administration, our mail will still be handled by two Free Silver Democrats.

Since my last communication, eight ears of cattle, two ears of hogs, and two ears of logs have been shipped from this point.

Gresham & Son have shipped 9000 dozen eggs, aggregating $380 in cash. They have on hand 1000 dozen.

Miss Laura Taylor, of Columbia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Taylor.

No NAME.

ANDREWS.

ANDREWS, Oct. 5.—Elder Murphy, of Broadview, preached to a fair sized congregation at Corinth last Lord's Day, and Elder Ed Walker, of Santa Fe, filled Elder Fitzgerald's appointment at Rock Spring. Elder E. C. Sowell is engaged in a series of meetings near Franklin, this week.

Franklin, this week. The water situation is really becoming distressing here. Some are having to haul drinking water several miles. Fortunately some wells and springs are still holding out to afford plenty.

The well at Union Grove school house has been finished and Messrs. Marshall and Good are now drilling one for Elder H. A. Gray.

Mr. Frank Andrews has recently purchased a well drill.

Cotton has about all opened and the yield is small. Very little was planted in this section. Late sorghum is not yielding so much as the early planting.

Miss Caroline Patrie, a deaf mute, who lived with her cousin Mr. Polk Andrews, died last Thursday night, aged 60 years. Funeral services were conducted Friday at the residence by Elder F. C. Sowell, and the remains were interred in the Harris grave yard.

Mr. Tom Joyce is very sick at the home of his brother-in-law Mr. Wash Little. Dr. Nat Baxter is attending him.

Mrs. Lizzie Davis is slowly recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism. George Ferguson, Jr., came near being seriously hurt last Saturday. He was riding a mule, which was hitched to a harrow by the side of another, which became unmanageable and ran away.

The boy was thrown from the mule and the harrow teeth scraped down one side of him as it passed. Fortunately he was only scratched. One tooth came near sticking in his eye and left it quite black. Better results in a general way have been gained by the boys walking behind the harrows and guiding their teams.

Mrs. Mary Dooley has gone to keep house for her son John, who has completed his house.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jones attended the Centennial one day last week. Several contemplate going from here next Friday.

Miss Bertha Walker accompanied her father and visited at Mrs. Nicholson's Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Josie Sowell spent part of last week with her mother Mrs. Barnell, at Tally Station. The old pupils of her father Prof. C. R. Darnell, died, held a reunion there Friday, where near two hundred of them came together to revive their memory. Speeches were delivered by some of Lewisburg and Fayetteville's most prominent men, who spoke in loving remembrance of their honored instructor who died over twenty years ago.

Miss Bertha Nicholson returned Monday from a visit of two weeks to relatives in Culleoka and Lynnville.

Mr. Ollie Davis entered school at McCain's Monday.

A neighbor of ours tells a good joke on his wife about mistaking a real woman for a wax figure at the Centennial and talking about how life-like she looked. As he went alone the first time, perhaps that good wife of his will never know just how many of the wax soldiers he offered to shake hands with.

ENTERPRISE.

ENTERPRISE, Oct. 4.—The family of Mr. George Douglass is very sick. Mr. Douglass has pneumonia and Mrs. Douglass and two children are having chills.

Master Charlie Held has gone to Lawrenceburg, where he will attend school for the next ten months.

Several from this place attended the Confederate reunion last Saturday.

Mr. A. F. Spain is a little indisposed at present.

Mr. Joe Hovelmair, of Lawrenceburg, invited friends here several days ago. He now goes to St. Louis, where he will make his future home.

Plowing for wheat and making sorghum are the order of the day now. We are needing rain very badly now. It has not rained here since the 22nd of August, six weeks ago.

Mr. Jim Spencer and Miss Fannie Thomas were married last Friday at the home of the groom's uncle, Mr. Spencer. We wish for them a long and happy life.

If Madam Rumor is true, there will be one or two weddings on the creek and preaching at this place every first and third Sundays by Bro. Powers. Prayer-meeting every Sunday night.

Trio-Trio.

LASEA.

LASEA, Oct. 3.—Sorghum-making and candy pulling are the topic of the day. We regret very much to hear of the death of Miss Sallie Farris, of Southport. "Annette" will be missed from the HERALD family very much. The health of this neighborhood is better at present.

Mr. Joe Lee, of this place, left one day last week for Nashville, where he expects to work in a drug-store.

Miss Mary Hardison, who has been on the sick list for several days, was glad to report better.

Miss Laura Derryberry, who has been attending meeting at Chapel's Chapel, has returned home.

Mrs. Lee Neely has returned home after a stay of several days with homefolks in Marshall county.

Mr. Felix Derryberry, who has had a severe spell of the fever, was glad to say has about recovered.

Mr. J. D. Derryberry, wife and children, of Mallard, were visiting homefolks here last week, and attended preaching here to-day.

Mrs. Mattie Hardison and Miss Annie May Derryberry, who have been having chills, we are glad to say have recovered.

Mr. R. S. Derryberry is on the sick list this week. We hope he may soon be well again.

Mr. Tom Ring and family, of this place, will move on the other side of the river to-day, where Mr. John Davis now lives, and Mr. Davis will occupy Mr. Ring's house.

The school at this place is progressing very nicely.

Rev. Nat Jones filled the pulpit at this place last Sunday night.

Mr. T. J. Derryberry, the Centerville druggist, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.

One of Dr. R. B. Rapp's children is having chills. We hope that it may soon be restored to perfect health.

ROSE AND NELL.

MOWD.

MOWD, Oct. 5.—After some weeks of silence I will try to write again for the only HERALD. I must not forget to thank our kind Editor for tickets to the HERALD's reunion, although I regretted seriously my inability to attend. I leave them to two of my bachelor friends, thinking probably they would find them a new girl at the State fair. They reported a good time.

Making sorghum has been the order of the day here for the past week. The corn must be gathered in; then the wheat sowing, after which the tired farmer will have another rest.

Our young people have been enjoying a candy stew now and then, and they say they are real enjoyable affairs.

Some of us have been attending the protracted meeting at Godwin's Chapel this week.

Miss Carrie Marshall, of Bear Creek, visited the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Walters recently.

E. A. Oakley's new residence is about complete, and we are ready to welcome them as neighbors.

Mr. J. B. Shaw has his house newly covered and the roof white-washed.

Rev. S. M. Gupton baptized Miss Hollie Dodson and Mrs. Will Dodson near this place last Sunday.

The general health of the community is very good at this writing.

Mr. John Taylor and son have moved into the vacant store house at this place.

Mr. D. C. Walters is hauling lumber to build his new blacksmith shop at an early date.

With many kind wishes, I remain the same.
